Incumbents win re-election to RRG board

Ann Arbor, MI (January 9, 2018) -- The annual HealthCap RRG Board of Directors election has been completed. Congratulations to Ron Wilson of RFMS, Inc. (Illinois) and Tim Chesney of MSTC Development, Inc. (Ohio) who were re-elected to three-year terms.

Thank you to all of our members who made their voices heard by casting ballots in this election and to all the nominees who offered their service in support of HealthCap. We are especially grateful to Jim Haines from American HealthCare, LLC (Virginia) who was a first-time candidate on this year's HealthCap ballot. Thank you one and all.

Formed in 2001, HealthCap® is a member-owned and member-governed insurance company dedicated to Protecting the People Who Provide the Care™ by providing best-in-class risk management services and general and professional liability insurance to senior care organizations throughout the United States.
